As Secretary of State Mr. Blaine would hardly be reckless enough to undertake to repudiate a single important act of his prodecessor.—Fahind-iphin Record.

It would first be necessary for him to find the important act. Mr. Bayard's administration, has not been profile in that legislative Committee in favor of rein-ulrection, but such as it is it has already bursing Gen. Hodsdon for services residenbeen repudlated by the people.

The Mugwumps who have worshipped blindly at the shrine of Cleveland, the humbug saint of civil tervice reform, says the Concord Monitor, can chew for a while on the fact that among the postmasters of the country a larger number of changs have been made by Claveland than by any other President since 1567, when the record of changes began.

If the Arkansas Legislature would pass fewer humigration resolutions and more measures that would make tragedies like the Clayton assassibation arare occurrence of which was only frustrated by a few fetermined men more honest than the forly of their party, for any office is hadenough, but to select such a man for a place on the Civil Service Commission is adding insult to lajury.) The appointment is, however, in keeping with the majority of Cleveland's official acts.

The Territorial bill has been agreed upon both branches of Congress. It settles the admission of the two Dakotas under the names of North and South Dakots, and Washington, and Montana. South Dakota will vote upon the Sloux Falls constitution May 14; and on the same date North Dakota, Washington and Montana will alset delegates to a constitutional convention and for a fall list of State officers. In October the people will vote upon the constitution proposed by the convention and it adepted after the President's proclamation to that effect, the Governor of each may order an election for members of a State Legislature and Representatives to State Legislature and Representatives to Congress in the four States.
